Sustainable, "Green", Building Science, Good decisions - Energy Codes 2009

FLAGSTAFF SUSTAINABILITY PROGRAM

concerning regulations for Energy Codes, new construction & general info:

Sustainable Building Program run by Coconino County is partnered with the City of Flagstaff. The program provides education, general information and development. 928-679-8853

Need a quick link to Coconino County?: http://www.coconino.az.gov/sustainablebuilding

Click on these items for either answers or links to ideas!!!!

- How do I install PV Solar?
- Do you have any step-by-step examples for solar?
- What do I need to know for Thermal Solar? [Draft]
- Want to install a wind turbine, what do I need?

FLAGSTAFF: New information

- What is geo-thermal? [coming soon]
- Looking for Green Builders check out the Resource Directory.
- What are the Energy Code options for Flagstaff?
- I'm building a Commercial Project, what do I need to know for Energy Code requirements?
- When were the current Building Codes adopted?
- What are the different requirements for Phase 1 and Phase 2 of the Energy Code amendments?
- Can I do straw bale construction?
- When do I need engineering for an energy efficient project?
- What are the plan submittal requirements, ordinances, amendments (Title 4)? [See proposal, 10 Feb 09]
- Does anyone teach or provide information on passive solar designs? [Yes, Coconino Community College, Joe Costion]
- Where do I find information on rebates?